ANNUAL STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE AS REQUIRED BY SECTION 64.2009(e) OF THE RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATION COMMISSION

The following statement explains how operation procedures observed by Awesome Paging, Inc. (Company") ensure that it is in compliance with the rules in Subpart U of Part 64 of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

In the twelve months ending December 31, 2005, the Company has elected not to utilize or provide CPNI for any purpose other than those purposes that are permissible without customer approval in accordance with Section 64.2005 of the FCC's Rules and Regulations.

The Company recognizes that it may use, disclose or permit access to CPNI to provide or market service offerings among the categories of service to which the Customer already subscribed. When the Company provides different categories of service, and a Customer subscribes to more than one service category, the Company understands that it may share the Customer's CPNI with the affiliate that provides service to the Customer, but if a Customer subscribes to only one service category, it may not share the Customer's CPNI with an affiliate without the Customer's approval.

The Company has the following protection measures in place. First, the Company undertakes periodic reviews of company practices to ensure that the Company remains in compliance with CPNI rules. Second, the Company requires that each of its employees sign confidentiality agreements and adhere to company policies protecting confidential subscriber information. Third, the Company trains its customer representatives to conform to confidentiality practices.
